

Angsana Ihuru

A photograph of a beach scene. The foreground is dominated by light-colored, fine-grained sand. In the lower right corner, a single, smooth, light-colored seashell with a small orange spot is resting on the sand. The background shows the gentle waves of the ocean meeting the shore, with a clear blue sky above. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

Quietude in the ocean.
Marine treasures awaiting discovery.

At Angsana Ihuru, be surrounded by one of the most vibrant and well preserved coral house reefs in the Maldives. Located on the North Malé Atoll, this ambrosial escape is a mere 20-minute speedboat journey from Malé.

Powder white sand and sparkling azure waters beckon, mere steps from your Beachfront Villa.

Bask in the magnificent Maldivian sun. Sip on a cool refreshing drink and let the gentle caresses of the sea breeze lull you into deep relaxation.

Stretch out on the timber patio or be immersed amidst the bubbling waters of your private jet pool at the Beachfront Jet Pool Villa. Take respite from the afternoon sun in the villa's vibrant interiors.

As the sun melts into the horizon in the evening, emerge for an intimate barbeque on your private patio.

Savour breathtaking views of the Indian Ocean at Riveli, alongside an eclectic and delectable fusion of delicious Asian, Mediterranean and Maldivian tastes.

Make a date at the waterfront Velaavani Bar and enjoy the stunning views with a refreshing cocktail. Occasionally, you might even be entertained by the playful parade of dolphins in the clear blue waters.

Hand in hand, disembark from the speedboat and stroll barefoot along a private sandbank bathed in the crimson warmth of a stunning sunset. This unforgettable rendezvous is yours to keep as twinkling stars put on a stellar performance in the brilliant night sky, accompanied by the crescendo of rolling waves.

Marine lovers will be thrilled with nature's bounties at Angsana Ihuru's vibrant and expansive house reef. Other delightful seafaring adventures include diving into the deep blue, island-hopping with picnic basket in hand, and soaring through the air with wakeboarding, water-skiing and windsurfing.

Be involved at Angsana Ihuru. Be it turtle monitoring, reef cleaning, coral gardening, or marine biology classes, there's something for everyone.

A guided snorkelling safari will unveil the treasures of the Maldivian coral reefs, and a lucky few will chance upon the endangered Napoleon Wrasse reef fish.
